COME AND SHARE YOUR INPUT

MADISON COUNTY
Emerging Technology Ordinance

What is this?

Madison County has prepared a draft Emerging Technology Ordinance to establish clear development standards for new and evolving land uses that are not currently addressed by the County's zoning regulations.

Why attend?

This is your opportunity to review the draft and share feedback before it is finalized. Your input will help ensure the Emerging Technology Ordinance reflects community priorities and aligns with Madison County's vision for how these emerging land uses should be planned and managed in the future.
